

COVID-19 EMERGENCY FUNDING ALERT

NOTICE TO DC SMALL BUSINESSES AND NONPROFITS

City First is honored to serve as a financial first responder, in partnership with the Deputy Mayor's Office on Planning and Economic Development (DMPED), Mayor Muriel E. Bowser, to promote information and resources available to small businesses and nonprofits that have been financially impacted by the coronavirus public health emergency through the COVID-19 Emergency Resources portal.

City First is here to help you recover and grow your business or nonprofit, during and after this pandemic. Thank you for being a partner to City First. We're here for the community first, since day one.

We'll be communicating information on emergency funding programs as we receive it.

NONPROFIT AND SMALL BUSINESSES EMERGENCY FUNDING

LOAN

U.S. Small Business Administration

Small Businesses and Nonprofits in all U.S. states and territories are currently eligible to apply for a low-interest loan due to Coronavirus (COVID-19).

The SBA will work directly with state Governors to provide targeted, low-interest loans to small businesses and nonprofits that have been severely impacted by the Coronavirus (COVID-19).

The SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loan program provides small businesses and nonprofits with working capital loans of up to $2 million that can provide vital economic support to small businesses and nonprofits to help overcome the temporary loss of revenue they are experiencing.
