Broadway Financial Corporation Announces Notification from Nasdaq Regarding Late Filing of Form 10-Q

LOS ANGELES – (PRNEWswire) – Broadway Financial Corporation (“Broadway”, “we”, or the “Company”) (NASDAQ: BYFC), parent company of City First Bank, National Association, announced today it received a letter from The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”), dated August 21, 2025, informing the Company that it is not in compliance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5250(c)(1) (“Rule 5250(c)(1)”) for continued listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market because its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2025 (the “Form 10-Q”) was not filed within the time period prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) rules.

Nasdaq’s notice has no immediate effect on the listing or trading of the Company’s shares on The Nasdaq Capital Market, although there can be no assurances that further delays in the filing of the Form 10-Q or the Company’s other SEC reports will not have an impact on the listing or trading of the Company’s common stock.

As previously disclosed on the Company’s Form 12b-25 filed with the SEC on August 15, 2025, the Company was unable to complete and timely file the Form 10-Q because it requires additional time to evaluate its participation agreements for compliance with Accounting Standards Codification Topic 860 and the impact to the consolidated financial statements. As a result of this delay, the Company requires additional time to fully complete its review of the financial statements for the quarter ended June 30, 2025 for adequate disclosure of the information required to be included in the Form 10-Q.

Nasdaq has provided the Company 60 calendar days from August 21, 2025, to submit a plan to regain compliance with Rule 5250(c)(1). If Nasdaq accepts the Company’s plan, then Nasdaq may grant the Company up to 180 days from the prescribed due date, or until February 16, 2026, for filing the Form 10-Q to regain compliance.

The Company expects to file the Form 10-Q as promptly as reasonably practicable and prior to the 60-day deadline for submitting a compliance plan to Nasdaq.
